Mazda Motor Corporation is a Japanese automotive manufacturer based in Hiroshima, Japan.
It is said that Mazda coincides with the anglicized pronunciation of the founder's name, Jujiro Matsuda, v

The current logo attempts to capture the spirit of Mazda, the stylised "M" evokes an image of wings in f

{gallery}logo/carlogos/mazda-logo{/gallery}

1934 - This mark became the registered trademark for Mazda when production commenced on our th

1936 - Similar to the emblem of Hiroshima city, this mark expresses Mazda's strong links to its hometo

1959 - Mazda created the classic "M' to coincide with the launch of its first passenger cars. Symbol a

1975 - This mark was introduced at the same time as Mazda's new Corporate Identity System (CIS) i

1991 - The logo shown here was introduced as the new product mark for Mazda in 1991. The shape s

1992 - Shortly after the release of the new symbol, the design was smoothed out to reduce its similari

1997 - A redesigned symbol was introduced in 1997; it is a stylized "M" meant to show Mazda stretch

Capturing the spirit of Mazda, the stylised "M" evokes an image of wings in flight and symbolises the M

Source:

http://www.mazda.co.za/servlet/ContentServer?cid=1137386392591&pagename=Page&c=DFYPage
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mazda

More World Famous Logos
More Car Logos
Logo Parodies

Click here for more information on the History, Design and Meaning of Car Logos The respective logos are registered trademarks. Use of the logo here does not imply endorsement of the organization by this site.